WELCOME - Whitstable Town

Well it's the start of a new month and a busy one here at Erith Stadium as we host six home fixtures.

For the first of those we are delighted to welcome the players, official and supporters of Whitstable Town for our SCEFL Premier Division meeting.

With various groundshares, this will be their first visit to the Stadium in over a decade.

A particular welcome to Richie Styles who coached here before setting off on his managerial journey.

It is always good to see him.

Last Saturday saw us enjoy an ultimately comfortable win over Rochester United in the ISUZU FA Vase.

We survived one scare before James Trueman popped-up with his second goal in four games to give us a half-time lead.

A blitz in the opening fifteen minutes of the second half saw Tola Odedoyin score for the second successive game before Steadman Callender claimed a double to put the result beyond doubt.

Monday's draw rewarded us with another home tie against Crawley Down Gatwick of the Southern Combination League Premier Division.

At the time of writing they are seventh in their League with five wins and three defeats, so will likely provide a stronger test for us.

On Tuesday we returned to League action with a 2-0 win at Punjab United.

While it's fair to say we have played better, it was a deserved win and we got the job done with a clean sheet. Steadman Callender's penalty put us ahead in the first half, before Charlie Clover added a second goal in the final minute.

Congratulations are due to Steaders who made his 200th first team appearance for the club—a magnificent achievement.

Our busy home month continues with the visit of Holmesdale on Wednesday.

We then travel to Hollands & Blair next Saturday, before three consecutive home Saturdays against Meridian VP, Crawley Down and K-Sports, plus a midweek derby at home to Erith & Belvedere.

Tuesday's win put us fourth in the table and now is the time for everyone to push forward and improve our position further.

It promises to be an exciting month and we would love to see you join us as we try to bring some success to the town over the next few months.

Enjoy the game today and get behind the team.

COYD!

SCEFL ROUND UP

ERITH & BELVEDERE will take their 100 percent record into November after winning 3-1 at FISHER on Tuesday evening.

Nathan Palmer gave the Deres a third minute lead but four minutes later injury forced off their debutant keeper Callum Backhurst.

Outfield player Fraser Walker went in goal, but it had no adverse affect as Danny Lear and Palmer made it 3-0 by half-time.

Jacob Katonia scored the Fish's consolation goal four minutes after half-time.

DEAL TOWN left it late before coming from a goal down to beat WHITSTABLE TOWN 2-1 at home.

Matt Gething's first half goal had given the visitors the lead, but Kane Smith levelled in the 78th minute and Jack Penny scored the winner two minutes later in front of a bumper crowd of 512.

STANSFELD lost ground on Wednesday night as they drew 0-0 at HOLMESDALE.

The draw was Holmedale's fifth in nine games.

Our 2-0 win at PUNJAB UNITED saw us move into fourth spot.

GLEBE moved into fifth after they beat TUNBRIDGE WELLS 3-1 at Foxbury Avenue.

Jamie Philpot's goal gave the hosts a 13th minute lead, but a Trevor McCreadie strike sent the sides in level at half-time.

Freddie Cray restored Glebe's lead in the 53rd minute, with Philpot scoring his second five minutes late.

Only goals scored separates fifth from seventh place, which is occupied by BEARSTED after a 2-2 draw at home to HOLLANDS & BLAIR.

Ben Brown gave Blair the lead, but two Phil Headley penalties put the Bears ahead before the break.

Scott Porter's side registered their sixth draw in eight games as Ethan Stewart levelled two minutes from time.

CANTERBURY CITY moved out of the bottom two on Tuesday as they won 2-0 at LORDSWOOD.

That left SUTTON ATHLETIC in the relegation places, but a 4-1 win over WELLING TOWN on Wednesday evening moved them to fourteenth with Lordswood dropping to second bottom.

RUSTHALL and PHOENIX SPORTS fought out a 1-1 draw at Jockey Farm.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2018, while we were playing Bedfont & Feltham away in the FA Vase, Whitstable were literally over the fence playing Bedfont Sports.

The two grounds were so close we could hear the tannoy announces from their game.

It was a successful day for both clubs with us winning 2-1, while the Oystermen won 4-1.

The Whitstable coach even turned up at the wrong ground before being redirected.

Our defender Tola Odedoyin has a twin brother Wade who currently plays for Woodford Town.

This afternoon we have two firsts for our match referee.

Anastaysia Voloshchuk will be the first woman to referee our first team and also the first Ukranian.

We hope she enjoys her time with us and wish her every success in her career.
