WELCOME - AFC CROYDON ATHLETIC

Good afternoon, and welcome to the Stanmore Stadium for this afternoon's Isthmian South-East fixture with AFC Croydon Athletic. As always, we'd like to offer the warmest of welcomes to everyone who has made trip across South East London to The Stanmore Stadium, to the players and management team, to the board and committee members, the volunteers, and especially to the Croydon travelling support, we sincerely hope you enjoy your afternoon in SE28 - but not too much!

The return of the cold weather looks to have played the usual havoc on fixtures up and down the league, the rain especially has brought a number of waterlogged pitches, so we are massively grateful to everyone across the Dockers faithful and the volunteers who have toiled tirelessly to make sure that we could rise above the vagaries of the inclement weather and make sure that we can get a game on.

Midweek saw the new look Dockers take on local rivals VCD Athletic here at The Stanmore and I'm happy to say aht we came away with a creditable 1-0 victory to even up the score after a narrow defeat earlier in the season.

Great work from Destiny Oladipo got him into the VCD box where he carved a chance for himself that frustratingly hit the post but the rebound was kind, dropping straight to new signing George Brooke who arrowed his shot straight into the gaping VCD net. The rest of the tie was hard fought and it's fair to say we rode our luck at times in what was, at the end, torrential rain and howling winds, but on his home debut, new manager Aaron Jeffery's men managed the game well, throwing bodies on the line when needed and, seeing the game out to get those precious three points on the board.

This afternoon's game will no doubt be totally different. As I write this Croydon are holding tight to second in the table and comfortably in the shout for a play-off spot with a game in hand over the two teams below them, so this will be no easy game.

Aaron's men will have to be right on their mettle from the kick-off if they want to get anything from the game against this Croydon side, but with a new look squad showing the fearlessness that comes from youth, coupled with some good coaching, hard running and the right attitude, add a little luck and you never know what might happen.

So do what you always do Dockers' Faithful - bring the noise, make yourself heard, shout, scream, sing and stamp your feet - because with you behind them as always, the team feels like they can do anything!

HISTORY - AFC CROYDON ATHLETIC

AFC Croydon Athletic was officially born on 6th February 2012 after a group of supporters gathered at Selhurst Evangelical Church in South Norwood to form a new club. The newly appointed committee had just 7 weeks to put everything in place to convince the Football Association and the League that they were worthy of a place at Step 6 in the pyramid. Despite the challenge it was a successful journey. The need to form a new club had come about because of the demise Croydon Athletic FC who had folded playing its last game in December 2011.

A successful first season in Division One of the Combined Counties League saw a creditable 8th position. The club also won its first piece of silverware by winning the Lemon Recordings Division One cup by beating Staines Lammas 5-0 at Windsor.

The Club returned to its Spiritual home of Mayfield Stadium on 15th November 2014 with a game against Banstead Athletic. The club maintained a promotion chasing position all season and finally clinched 2nd place with a 3-0 victory over Cobham FC. The club also won its 2nd piece of silverware when winning the London Senior Trophy beating Interwood 4-3 after extra time.

With the FA having placed the club in The Southern Counties East Football League following promotion for the 2015/16 season the club then maintained their position in the league by finishing 11th. In the close season manager Antony Williams resigned as Manager and the club replaced him with Kevin Rayner. His first season saw the highest finish of 7th.

A move back to the Combined Counties League followed the reorganisation by the FA and two interrupted seasons due to Covid. Rayner remained at the helm throughout but the results were more of a struggle as the team finished in the lower half of the division although did manage to set new records in the FA Cup (First Qualifying Round) and the FA Vase (2nd Round).

In May 2023 Rayner recruited Lee Roots as his new joint Manager for the forthcoming season. Then in June 2023 it was announced that the Club had agreed to change ownership with a consortium of Danny Young, Wilfried Zaha and Stormzy taking control. The FA and the League gave their consent to that transfer just before the start of this season.

An opening day victory over Sutton Athletic in the FA Cup took place in front of a record 532 spectators. The next round at Horley Town was broadcast live on BBC Red Button and saw another victory. However, this proved to be the highlight and in September, after exiting the FA Cup and a loss to Jersey Bulls it was decided to part company with the management team.

In October Jermaine McGlashan was named Manager and he took charge of his first game away at Jersey Bulls which ended in a 1-0 victory. There followed a steady rise up the table from 17th place ultimately securing a play-off place with a 5-0 victory over Horley Town in the penultimate league game. The Playoffs involved two away fixtures first in Jersey and then at Knaphill winning both games 2-1 to secure promotion to the Isthmian League for the first time. McGlashan left the club by mutual consent in September 2024 and Michael Kamara is in temporary charge of the team. In November 2024 experienced coach Keith Millen was appointed first team Manager. His reign, however, was brief and he was replaced by permanent Manager Danny Kedwell in February who arrived with his Assistant Dean Beckwith. They steered the team to a 12th place finish to lay the foundation on which to build for the season ahead.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

By Jon Couch

If there's one thing we dread at NLP Towers on a Saturday it's attempting to keep abreast with the raft of postponements caused by wet and wintery conditions.

Dummy pages have to be written and drawn, sometimes never used, match pages require a complete overhaul and reporters need contacting with revised instructions for those games that do go ahead. It's an absolute nightmare, believe me!

But we are not the only ones whose days has been put out by such an event.

Managers, players, supporters, matchday volunteers, are all of which are severely inconvenienced - and also out of pocket with both clubs too losing thousands in travel expenses and lost revenue.

And then there's the poor matchday referees - the ones who make those all-important decisions to call a game off for whatever reason, causing anger, frustration and often resentment for all concerned. They simply can not win.

Safety of the players must come first and referees know that something does go wrong, then there are huge consequences. The last thing they want is to call a game off - no-one is doing so deliberately.

This week in The NLP we ran a guest column with Farnborough manager Spencer Day.

His team found themselves at the eye of a storm, quite literally, a fortnight ago when their National League South game with Chelmsford City was postponed very late on.

And their game wasn't the only one to fall, with other local matches at Eastleigh and on the 4G at Bracknell also falling at the 11th hour, along with Bath City v Southend United in the FA Trophy, much to the ire of the away contingent who had travelled almost the entire width of the country, only to be turned away.

A number of theories and unfounded suggestions have been thrown out there in a bid to combat such an eventuality, but according to the Boro boss, there is no resolution.

"We live in the UK and the truth of it is we are bound by the weather," Day told us.

"Our games fell to the most bizarre conditions seen for quite some time.

"I saw our pitch on Friday and I was amazed by the excellent condition it was in.

I'd been communicating with Chelmsford and [manager] Angelo Harrop all week and when I got to the game on Saturday I walked it, as I always do, and didn't see any issue at all. The pitch looked fantastic.

"Then, 40 minutes later, the referee turns up and told us there was an area of the pitch that had frozen over that he wanted to look at. I mean, yes, it was hard, no question, but it was tiny, about a foot in area, and the temperatures weren't dropping.

"In theory, could we have tried something? Maybe, I'm not sure. Could we have chucked boiling water on it? Again, I don't know. But it was obvious at the time at that point that it had to be called off so I'm not blaming him.

After he called the game off, I left the ground at 5 o'clock and I decided I wanted to walk the pitch just to see what it was like, and it completely softened. It had actually got warmer, which is crazy. It's the weather. I wish there was an answer."

With a handful of games postponed last Saturday due to waterlogged pitches, and more bad weather on the way, don't expect this situation to be brushed under the carpet anytime soon.

Health & Safety is top of the priority list of football authorities and in these days of social media, such decisions come under scrutiny like never before, adding copious amounts of pressure to the officials, part-time themselves more often than not.

Has the world has gone risk adverse? Day, for one, believes it has, but he also urges supporters to step back and look at the bigger picture when letting their frustrations be known.

"I'm a big supporter of the leagues, the FA and politicians - I think they have impossible jobs," he added. "They are damned if they do and damned if they don't in whatever decision they make.

"Everyone's trying their best to resolve what it an impossible situation, but sometimes your best isn't always the popular decision.

"All you can do is apologise to everyone but in some respects I don't know what we're apologising for. No-one can control the weather."

Isthmian League Respect Statement

"The Isthmian Football League strongly supports the Football Association's statement that there should be a zero-tolerance approach against all forms of discrimination. Any inappropriate conduct toward others, including but not limited to that based on an individual's sex, race, colour, weight, size, religion and belief, national origin, age, marital or domestic-partnership status, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, will not be tolerated and will be reported to the relevant authorities. The Isthmian League and our Member Clubs are committed to promoting equity and equality by treating all people fairly and with respect, by recognising that inequalities may exist, by taking steps to address them and providing access and opportunities for all members of our communities."

PATHWAYS

Rangers for their 7-side game.

Erith Town Under-11 Yellow kept great momentum in their Selkent Shield group with a 3-3 draw with Istead United, and our Under-11 Black side were in Selkent Cup Quarter-Final action against Dulwich United.

Our Under-12 team were victorious in their league game with Junior Reds and finally, the Erith Town Under-13 side locked horns with Eversley Rangers at Hall Place.

January is in full-swing and so are all of those who are on the Dockers Pathway!

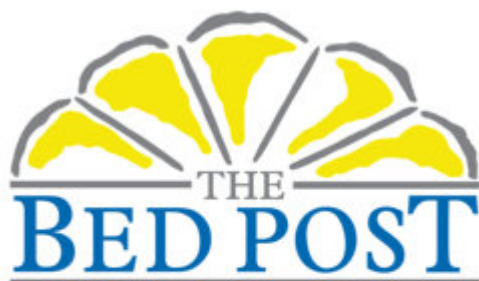

We'll start with our Selkent teams and look firstly to our Under-8s who were in a fantastic battle last weekend with Foots Cray Lions. It was full of backwards and forwards action, with plenty of goals in two nail-biting thrillers and both teams left the PlanetTurf Crossways arena very happy!

The Under-9 team were in Selkent Vase action against Cray Wanderers and Dulwich Village and our Under-10 travelled to Parkwood

Turning our attention to the Kent Youth League (KYL), our Erith Town Under-13 team faced off with Cockfosters away from home, and our Under-14 team were also on the road taking on Maidstone United. The Under-15 KYL side were at the Stanmore Stadium where we played against AFC Greenwich Borough and the Under-16 side beat Tunbridge Wells 2-0. Finally, our Under-18 Central side were 4-1 winners against Kent United and our Under-18 North side were defeated away at Dulwich Hamlet.

Although the results were mixed, we are still delighted with the effort and determination from our teams, and can't wait to see how the remainder of the season pans out!
