WELCOME - SPORTING BENGAL UNITED

Good evening and welcome to the Stanmore Stadium for tonight's London Senior CUup, 2nd Round tie with Sporting Bengal United. As usual, we would like to extend a warm welcome to our opponents, to the match day staff and squad, to the committee and volunteers who have travelled from East London, and especially to the fans who have made the journey to SE28 on a cold Tuesday evening.

Sporting Bengal are a team who we have got to know quite well due to having locked horns in the FA Cup with them twice this season, after our home fixture went to a replay back in August.

To say that those earlier fixtures were entertaining would be somewhat of an understatement, as the six goals in the away leg shows just what these two sides can do when they have their shooting boots on, and we will be hoping for more of the same here at Bayliss Avenue. No matter what league, competition or stadium you play in, midweek games under the lights are always special and this should be no different.

Although the last few games with Margate, Chatham Town and Broadbridge Heath may not have gone the way that Adam Woodward and his team would have wanted, the fact we have scored five goals in three games, and looking back at some of the games we have got results from this season, shows that we are back on the right path to climb up the table to a more comfortable position.

In recent weeks, we have noticed a group of fans going behind the goal at games and creating a fantastic atmosphere, so why not join these supporters during the game and get more involved on a match day? Trust us when we tell you that this truly has a fantastic impact on the team and really helps spur us on when we need that twelfth man - just ask Dexter Peter who now has the catchiest song in Non-League dedicated to him...

This club continues to show great togetherness, a community and a family-like feel that's infectious once you are a part of it. Your support this season has been fantastic, and we thank you for this, and we hope you enjoy tonight's game.

HISTORY - SPORTING BENGAL UTD

It all began with a football tour to Bangladesh in 1996 by a group of the best Bangladeshi players in London. There was a realisation that talent was being wasted with the divisions that existed and a solution was required to tackle these divisions. Sporting Bengal United FC was therefore established in 1996 to challenge the under-representation of Asians in football and to offer Bangladeshi and other young Asian people a chance to play football at a higher level.

Having brought together the best local Bangladeshi players, Sporting Bengal went on to win multiple UK Asian Championship titles and dominated the local leagues. It was time to explore the next level.

In only eight years, the team rose from amateur Sunday league football to semi-professional football. Having reached this level, the club broke down many barriers and was one of the first Asian teams to play in the famous FA Cup. Today, the club offers local young people of all backgrounds the opportunity to play semi-professional football.

Having initially competed in the Kent Senior League when securing semi-professional status from 2003, Sporting Bengal moved to the Essex Senior Football League in the 2011-12 season finishing 11th in the league and reaching the FA Vase Third Round Proper in the first season. The club finished runners up in the Essex Senior League Cup in 2013-14.

Ex-Dagenham and Redbridge FC footballer, Anwar Uddin, was the most high-profile manager of the club and managed during the 2015-16 season. In 2016-17, the club reached the First Round Qualifying stage of the FA Cup for the first time after Imrul Gazi was appointed the manager. The 2018-19 season saw the team finish 8th in the Essex Senior League. After a couple Covid hit seasons, the club suffered massively and was relegated in the 2021-22 season.

However, under the management of Steve Clark, Sporting Bengal won promotion back to the Essex Senior League from the Thurlow Nunn League First Division South at the first attempt after winning a dramatic penalty shootout in the Playoff Final. The team also matched the club record run of reaching the FA Vase Third Round Proper.

After Playoff success in 2022-23 season, Sporting Bengal did the unthinkable again and reached the Playoff Final of the Essex Senior League Premier Division in the 2023-24 season after finishing in 5th position in the league with a club record 70 points. Sporting Bengal beat non-league giants Romford FC 3-1 in the Final to secure promotion to Step 4 football and the Isthmian Football League for the first time in the club's history. The back-to-back promotions meant the club was suddenly competing in uncharted territory and despite a good start to the season and beating 3 of the top 5 teams including the eventual Champions, unfortunately the club couldn't compete consistently against some of the giants in non-league and were relegated back to the Essex Senior League in the 2024-25 season.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

By Matt Badock

Editor, The Non-League Paper

RADCLIFFE joint-boss Anthony Johnson's recent social media post caught the eye.

Highlighting their three goalscorers, Jordan Hulme, Rio Clegg and Mikey Afuye Johnson pointed out their upbringing through local amateur football to the positions where they were used to putting up the nets and paying subs.

His message to youngsters is to not turn noses up at lower levels, but get out and play competitive men's football.

Those three are now spearheading Radcliffe's National League North campaign that has got off to a flyer.

It's interesting as a reminder to young aspiring footballers there are many ways to make a career in football. Playing – and being paid – to play part-time at such a good level doesn't happen by accident. It takes hard work and dedication to achieve.

It's true there are some youngsters who may sneer at Non-League. Stories of some turning down the chance to go on loan to help with their development do float around.

Perhaps it's the social media culture where it's easier to have 'professional footballer' written in the X or Instagram bio.

But for those who do play, there are more opportunities than ever to make an impact and get spotted.

In recent seasons we've written about so many stories of players getting their chance in the Football League who are not drawn just from the top of Non-League, but right the way through all Steps.

"Let's use those (Hulme, Clegg and Afuye) as an example," Johnsons told us. "Rio Clegg has never been hurt by the system. Because he's never come through an academy, he's never been released by a Liverpool, United, Blackburn and landed at, say, an Oldham and had to start again.

"That leaves a lot of scar tissue, it does. I see it with young players we coach now – eight, nine, ten year olds who have been told they're not good enough – and people wonder why there's a pandemic of young lads with mental health!

"We've got Rio Clegg, Mikey Afuye and a whole group of that age around the club where we can go: They're starving hungry.

"Then when you've got a Jordan Hulme, who has come from the exact same playground as them, put nets up and, it sounds awful, cleared dog st off the local park pitch, paid subs to then getting to paid to play semi-professional football, shows how far they've come.

"Yes, you've got young hungry lads coming through but you've also got lads at the top end who have been there and done it themselves. That helps keep their feet on the ground.

"We've got a group here – Matt Sargent, Danny Greenfield, Michael Afuye and Rio Clegg – who are all 23, 24, being watched by EFL clubs and they're an incredibly talented bunch.

"Then we've got the group above them who are coming into their prime. Then we've got our experienced group. It's almost three categories so we've got a really good blend."

EFL – and even Premier League – teamsheets this weekend will show there are plenty of routes to the same destination.
