WELCOME - WELLING TOWN FC

NEVER, NEVER, NEVER GIVE UP!

Winston Churchill's words have never resonated so loudly as they did on Wednesday evening.

A man down after seven minutes, and a goal down after 13 minutes, we found a way to stay in the game, without it ever quite looking like it was going to be our night.

Fast forward to the seventh minute of added time and we conceded a free-kick that surely meant it was all over.

A misplaced pass allowed James Trueman to knock a ball over the top of their defence and Steadman's persistence paid off as he knocked the ball past the keeper and turned the ball home from a wide angle.

Steadman is a predator. He will wait for his chance, and come alive in that moment.

While he has lost his two strike partners in recent weeks, he has continued to take the weight of goalscoring.

As a team, this group keep going through adversity, and even when they aren't at their best.

That's how we got the point on Wednesday, and why we retained second place.

This afternoon we go again, as we welcome the players, officials and supporters of Welling Town Football Club to Erith Stadium.

They are fighting for points to stay out of the bottom two, and we cannot underestimate the task ahead of us this afternoon.

The Boots won 2-1 on their visit last season, so we have been warned.

We would also like to welcome Bexley Foodbank, who we are delighted to be supporting once again today.

It was good to see Ryan Mahal return to the side on Wednesday evening, albeit it was briefly.

He will be available today, but suspended for Tuesday's trip to Deal Town.

Adem Ramadan was back on the bench, but not used on Tuesday, while Harry Taylor and Alfie Eldridge both took part in the warm up and are nearing return.

After today we face five successive away games, starting with Deal on Tuesday night.

We then travel to Stansfeld, or the third time this season, next Saturday.

On Wednesday 8th we will now travel to Phoenix Sports, rather than Bearsted on Tuesday 7th.

We did request a change with the League, as the under 18's play in the London Cup Final on the 7th, and we wanted to be able to support them.

Thank you to the League fixture secretary, Matthew Panting, for agreeing to our request.

We then go to Kennington on 11th March, before a huge game at Phoenix Sports on Wednesday 15th.

As always, we would love your support.

COYD!

CONGRATULATIONS RYAN

Congratulations to Ryan King-Elliott on his recent appointment as manager of Welling Town.

At 24 years-old, Ryan is the youngest manager in the League, and has brought Junior James as his head-coach and Bafor Aganbi as coach.

We wish Ryan and his management team all the best (after today of course!).

The Boots have three former Dockers in their squad, so we would like to welcome back Conrad Lee, Alex Nelson and Sam Bailey this afternoon.

SCEFL - ROUND UP

KSPORTS missed the chance to move out of the bottom two after going down 2-1 at home to neighbours BEARSTED on Monday evening.

After 78 goalless minutes, Jordan Ababio put the Bears ahead, only for Billy Lewins to level two minutes later.

Two minutes from time Colby Waite bagged a winner for the visitors.

A late goal denied WELLING TOWN the chance to move a point clearer as they went down 1-0 at HOLLANDS & BLAIR.

Harvey Welford scored the only goal a minute from time.

Blair now have Harvey, and his Dad, former Ramsgate striker Shaun, as part of their squad.

There is now a seven point gap between Welling in 18th and 17th placed Bearsted.

CANTERBURY CITY look doomed at the foot of the table, and went down 3-0 at PHOENIX SPORTS on Wednesday.

City held their hosts until half-time, but Micky Dalton's 47th minute goal was followed by two in the next eight minutes by Tashi-Jay Kwasi.

New Lordswood manager Matt Barman looks to be turning around their fortunes.

After a win at WHITSTABLE TOWN and draw at ERITH & BELVEDERE, his side hammered KENNINGTON 4-0 on Tuesday night.

Josh Reid scored on the stroke of half-time and made it 3-0 five minutes after half-time following Harry Goodger's effort.

Julian Kuhr's penalty rounded off the Lords' biggest win of the season so far.

TUNBRIDGE WELLS are unpredictable, but will be satisfied with a 3-0 win at SUTTON ATHLETIC.

Robbie Bissett opened the scoring in the 41st minute, with Trevor McCreadie and Johnny Phillips completing the win in the second half.

GLEBE continue to struggle for consistency and went down 2-0 at home to PUNJAB UNITED.

Jayden Hussein and Theo McKenzie scored as the Gravesend side eased their relegation fears.

There will be a new name on the SCEFL Challenge Cup this season, with none of the remaining sides having won it.

Fisher will meet Sutton Athletic on one semi-final with Kennington playing Hollands & Blair or Bearsted.

Both ties will be over two legs.

With the first team playing on Wednesday, it was a young Dockers side that travelled to Holmesdale on the same evening.

The lads suffered only a second League defeat, losing 5-2 at Oakley Road.

That meant that we failed to regain second spot after Bearsted won 4-2 at Hollands & Blair on Monday evening.

Sheppey United moved further clear at the top after they won 1-0 at Punjab United. Staplehurst Monarchs won for only the second time this season, beating Snodland Town 4-1.

Bearsted played for the second time in three evenings on Wednesday, drawing 1-1 in their 'away' fixture with Tunbridge Wells.

The game was played at Bearsted following the recent fire at Tunbridge Wells' Culverden Stadium.

JOHN MOTSON

As we were preparing this programme, the sad news broke of John Motson's passing on Thursday.

Legend doesn't begin to describe the man who is the example by who all other commentators are judged.

My first season of loving football was 1971-72 when Motty came to the fore after commentating on Hereford's FA Cup giant-killing against Newcastle United.

I have grown up listening to his commentaries, and having been lucky enough to do local radio commentary, he has been an inspiration and example of what is required.

He was universally liked and respected and football has lost one of it's greats.

The thoughts of this football club are with his family.
