WELCOME

Welcome to Corinthian Football Club, our hosts for this afternoon's FA Vase tie against Loxwood FC, and a very warm welcome to everyone who has made the trip from Sussex this afternoon - we hope you enjoy your day out.

We come into today's match off the back of an excellent 2-1 win over Bedfont Sports in the FA Cup last weekend. It's only the second time we have beaten a club from a higher level and no one could dispute how much we deserved it.

Having conceded a soft goal in the third minute we played our way back into the game and Charlie Clover's equaliser was on the cards well before it came. From that moment on there only looked like one winner and we could have added more after Harry Taylor headed in what turned out to be the decisive goal.

Our reward is another game against Isthmian League opposition as we travel to Three Bridges in the 1st qualifying round. That match will be played this Friday, 2nd September at 7.45pm at their Jubilee Field ground, Crawley after we agreed to our opponents' request to move the tie.

We will be running a coach for this tie so email info@erithtown.co.uk if you would like to join us onboard and support the team.

Our progress in the FA Cup means that the league game against Kennington will now be re-arranged.

Our next home game is on Wednesday 14th September when Glebe are the visitors, kick-off 7.30pm.

Congratulations to our captain, Jason Good-child who made it into Kent Online's Team of the Week following his performance against Bedfont.

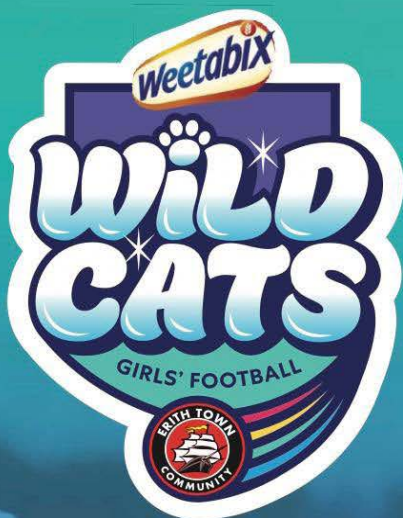

We should also mention our visitors who were generous in defeat despite their disappointment.

James Miles serves the first of his three match ban after being sent off at Fisher.

As a club we also want to send our best wishes to Jack Fenton. Jack missed all of last season after breaking his ankle in a friendly at Margate. Having fought his way back, he went on loan to SC Thamesmead to get some football and fitness with a view to returning to The Dockers but sadly he broke it again in their game against AFC Whyteleafe last week. It's desperately bad luck for a decent lad who has worked hard to get over the injury and everyone here at The Dockers wishes him well and hopes for a speedy recovery.

Should today's game be drawn, it will go straight to penalties to decide a winner with no extra-time.

Enjoy the game. COYD!

SCEFL ROUND UP

Four SCEFL clubs have progressed to the FA Cup 1st qualifying round.

As well as the Dockers, RUSTHALL also beat Isthmian League opposition, winning 2-1 at home to Ramsgate. Louis Anderson and James White scored their second half goals after the Rams has led at half-time.

PHOENIX SPORTS won the all SCEFL tie at TUNBRIDGE WELLS 1-0 with Dave Martin scoring an 87th minute winner but despite progressing, manager Steve O'Boyle wasn't happy with his team's performance. Phoenix are at home to Rusthall in the first qualifying round.

FISHER are at home to Spelthorne Sports after winning 1-0 in their replay at Sittingbourne on Tuesday. The Fish led 2-0 in the first game at St Paul's Stadium but goals in the 89th and 90th minute took it to a second game.

LYDD TOWN went top of Division One last week after a 3-2 win at CROYDON. They twice came from behind before Ryan Philpott's 68th minute winner.

FAVERSHAM STRIKE FORCE went second after a 4-0 win at MERIDIAN VP, including two goals for Tom Barton.

BRIDON ROPES are second on goal difference after Eke Gudiuk's goal earned them a 1-1 draw at GREENWAYS maintaining both clubs' unbeaten starts.

Kanan Fitton followed up a midweek hat-trick for FC ELMSTEAD with two more goals as they ended LARKFIELD AND NEW HYTHE WANDERERS' unbeaten start with a 3-0 win.

Thomas Ngegba's 87th minute goal made it two wins from two for FOREST HILL PARK in a 1-0 win at KENT FOOTBALL UNITED.

ROCHESTER UNITED will be looking for a return to the Premier Division this season and beat TOOTING BEC 4-0 at Rede Court Road, with Levi Gold netting a double.

Newboys AFC WHYTELEAFE remain un-beaten after Temi Alaka scored twice in a 3-1 win at SC THAMESMEAD.

Fellow newcomers BERMONDSEY TOWN recorded their first win as a senior club with a 3-0 success at STAPLEHURST MONARCHS UNITED.

Ex-Chatham striker Rob Denness scored in SNODLAND'S 2-1 win over LEWISHAM.

Our Under 23s side played Forest Hill Park's first team here in a pre-season friendly the Wednesday before last. Forest Hill won an entertaining game 4-3 as we gave some vital game time to some of our players.

There is a chance we will fit in another friendly prior to our opening fixture in the new SCEFL Development League at home to Holmesdale on 7th September.
